

PAF 2010 | 9–12 December
9th FESTIVAL OF FILM ANIMATION
CLOSING PRESS RELEASE

The 9th year of the Festival of Film Animation (PAF) has ended. During the four festival days, the audience had the opportunity to watch 172 films grouped into 54 sections. The British cult director Peter Greenaway, who was awarded the Lifetime Achievement Award for moving picture cinematography, was the most distinguished guest of the festival. Carsten Nicolai aka Alva Noto, one of the most significant contemporary audiovisual artists, is among those artists who introduced themselves to the Czech Republic for the first time. Another outstanding event was the world premiere of the gallery video Soft Palate by the Austrian experimentalist Martin Arnold, who preferred Olomouc's premiere to premieres at the Berlin and Rotterdam festivals.

The output of the workshop led by the Polish animator Anna Pankiewicz, and also the European premiere of Don Hertzfeldt's short film I Am So Proud of You were presented at the closing ceremony of the festival. At the ceremony the winner of the competition section Other Visions was announced. The international jury as well as the audience agreed on David Možný's film Rahova winning the award.

The Jury members:

Pip Chodorov, the American filmmaker and gallery owner

Martin Kaňuch, the Slovak film theoretician

Brigitta Burger-Utzer, Wien sixpackfilm's managing director

The Jury announcement:

“Grand Jury Prize goes to Rahova for its excellence, conceptually and technically, in image and sound. The film composites an inside view into the architecture and the elements of construction, showing the vulnerability of a formerly pre-fabricated living environment. It shows dystopia in a playful way, rather than a depressing one.”
